

Ava Caschera

Research Assistant
Environmental Studies Undergraduate Student
cascher1@uwindsor.ca

Field Work/Research

Windsor Coastal Group — Coastal Hazards

July 2022 - Present

Research on boat wakes and regulations

Research on the affects of wakes on erosion

Conducting a survey to understand the general knowledge of boat wakes

Working with Muskoka Lakes and other local lakes

Costa Rica — Hydrology of the Rainforest

June 5th 2022 - June 19th 2022

Researched in San Ramon, Alajuela (Soltis Center, Texas A&M), specific to the study of hydrology affecting the rainforest and surrounding areas

Observation of wildlife in habitat of Howler Monkey Watershed

Volunteer — Bird House Building

April 2023

Helped build birdhouses for the University of Windsor Garden

EDUCATION

University of Windsor — Year 3

Started September 2021

Major in Environmental Studies

Concentration in Resource Management

CERTIFICATIONS

2023 - Certified with Ethics Board

PROJECTS

Boat Wake Perception Survey

A survey was created with the intention of learning the perception cottage owners have on boat wakes in order to improve regulations.